

Gene Hong

Biotechnology Undergraduate at Syracuse University

145 Avondale Place APT#8, Syracuse, NY 13210

gehong@syr.edu, (757)352-1869

Professional Summary

- A responsible RA candidate with excellent experience with leadership through 2 years of military training and an experience as a drill sergeant and a squad leader. Motivational and enthusiastic advisor candidate with a strong desire to assist and create an enjoyable living conditions for the other students.

Work Experience

Grand Mart International Foods

2016 – 2016

- Stock management
- Worked for 2 months before going back to college

Republic of Korea Army

2014 – 2016

- Drill Sergeant in 55th division boot camp
- Trained about 1,800 recruits into soldiers
- Temporarily worked in 55th division headquarters
- Appointed into a squad leader by my officer
- Certificate of award by 55th division commander (Writing Contest)
- Certificate of commendation by battalion commander (Excellency in a mission)

Syracuse Residential Security Aide(RSA)

2013 – 2014

- Worked 10 pm – 7 am shift at Booth Hall
- Never late to work

Master Hwang's World Class TaeKwonDo

2009 – 2010

- 3rd degree black belt in Taekwondo
- Taekwondo instructor under Master Hwang
- 4 gold medals won from regional tournaments

Education

Syracuse University

2013-2014, 2016-Present

- Biotechnology Major
- Sophomore (2016-2017)
- Current cumulative GPA 3.865 (Jan 1, 2017)
- Founder's scholarship recipient

Nansemond River High School

2009 – 2013

- 4.25 GPA (out of 4)
- Varsity golf player
- Varsity tennis player
- A member of the Beta Club (Honor Society)
- A member of the National Society of High School Scholars
- Golf essay scholarship recipient

Skills and Qualifications

- A fluent bilingual in English and Korean (Dual citizenship : the U.S. and Korea)
- Leadership acquired through 2 years of military training
- Patience and diligence
- Acute observational skill
- Ability to share emotions and communicate with the others
- Experience with people from different cultural and social backgrounds (especially during military years while training new recruits)